

Curriculum Vitae: Laila Schmitt

(Last update: August 3, 2018)

Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität (LMU) Munich

Department of Sociology

Chair of Quantitative Empirical Social Research Prof. Dr. Katrin Auspurg

Konradstr. 6

D-80801 Munich

Phone: +49 (0) 89 2180-6215

Email: laila.schmitt@lmu.de

Website: www.ls4.soziologie.lmu.de/schmitt

Current Position

Since 04/2017 Research Associate, DFG (German Research Foundation)-project AU 394/3-1 “Gender- and Class-Specific Job Preferences: Survey Experiments in Different Household Contexts” (Principal investigators: Prof. Dr. Katrin Auspurg, Prof. Dr. Thomas Hinz), Chair of Quantitative Empirical Social Research Prof. Dr. Katrin Auspurg, Department of Sociology, LMU Munich

Academic Positions

2012-2017 Research Assistant, Chair of Quantitative Empirical Social Research Prof. Dr. Katrin Auspurg (2015-2017), Prof. Dr. Sonja Pointner (Prof. Norman Braun, Ph.D.†, 2013-2015), Prof. Dr. Norman Braun (2012-2013), Department of Sociology, LMU Munich

2015-2016 Research Assistant, Chair of Quantitative Social Inequality and Family Research Prof. Dr. Josef Brüderl, Department of Sociology, LMU Munich

Education

2014-2017 M.A. in Sociology (minor in Statistics), LMU Munich

2011-2014 B.A. in Sociology (minor in Political Science), LMU Munich

2000-2010 Abitur, Marie-Curie-Gymnasium Kirchzarten, Germany (2003-2010), Riverstone International School Boise, ID, U.S. (2000-2003)

Grants

2013-2014 2x Deutschlandstipendium, LMU Munich

Presentations

2018

Working Hours and the Persistence of the Gender Wage Gap in Western Germany. American Sociological Association Annual Meeting, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, August (with Katrin Auspurg).

Working Hours and the Persistence of the Gender Wage Gap in Western Germany. International German Socio-Economic Panel User Conference, Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities, July (with Katrin Auspurg).

Working Hours and the Persistence of the Gender Wage Gap in Western Germany. University of Leipzig, Empirical Social Research Colloquium, June (with Katrin Auspurg).

2017

Working Hours and the Persistence of the Gender Wage Gap in West Germany. Poster; Seminar Rational Choice Sociology: Theoretical Contributions and Empirical Applications, Venice International University, November (with Volker Ludwig, Katrin Auspurg).

The Power of Churches: Discrimination of Non-Denominational Employees in the Health and Social Services Sector in Germany. 2nd User Conference of the PASS Panel Survey, Institute for Employment Research, The Research Institute of the Federal Employment Agency, Nuremberg, October (with Katrin Auspurg, Christiane Bozoyan, Mark Trappmann).

The Power of Churches: Discrimination of Non-Denominational Employees in the Health and Social Services Sector in Germany, DGS (German Sociological Association) Biannual Conference, Section Social Inequality and Social Stratification, Tübingen, September (with Katrin Auspurg, presenter: Christiane Bozoyan, Mark Trappmann).

Working Hours and the Persistence of the Gender Wage Gap in West Germany. Doctoral Seminar by the chair of Quantitative Empirical Social Research and the chair of Quantitative Social Inequality and Family Research, LMU Munich, August.

2016

The Power of Churches: Using Denomination to Discriminate in the Social Services Sector. Poster; Seminar Rational Choice Sociology: Theoretical Contributions and Empirical Applications, Venice International University, November (with Christiane Bozoyan, Mark Trappmann).

Teaching

M.A. exercise “Introduction to Regression Analysis with Stata”	Summer 2017
B.A. project seminar “Angewandte Bildungs- und Arbeitsmarktsoziologie”	Winter 2018

Professional Associations

American Sociological Association (ASA), German Academy of Sociology (AS)